

ASUC Green Certification Program

Green Checklist Documentation

Description/Documentation

For this program documentation can take the form of a picture of a sustainable practice, a paragraph description, and receipt of all sustainable purchases. A lot of the points are honor code based, though the GreenCAT will come to group's meetings/events for surprise audits. For Description of individual points, please refer to the Resource Guide.

Pre-requisites

- Group must have a “Green Team” or “Sustainability Officer” position to coordinate sustainable practices.

Documentation: Group should submit a description of the created (or existing) “Green Team” or “Sustainability Officer” position. Attendance of ASUC Green Certification Workshops is also evidence of the active participation of your group’s “Green Team” or “Sustainability Officer”.

Description/Documentation: Error! No bookmark name given.

- Group hosts at minimum 25% Green Certified Events through the Office of Sustainability (<http://sustainability.berkeley.edu/os/>)

Documentation: You should receive an electronic certificate for your Green Event. Please include this as a jpeg file in your bSpace Green Events folder.

Description/Documentation:Error! No bookmark name given.

- Green Certified Group (or applying group) representative attends monthly ECO forums.

Documentation: Keep a record of your attendance of ECO forums.

Description/Documentation:Error! No bookmark name given.

- Group pledges to stay green and do educational information sessions about their sustainable efforts and the group's participation in the Green Certification Program.

Welcome to BareAbundance!

BareAbundance is a volunteer-driven non-profit in Berkeley, California. We are dedicated to improving the dignity and quality of life of the at-risk populations we serve.

Our mission is to redistribute excess consumable food to low-income and vulnerable populations within the East Bay community.

Our vision is to ensure that no one goes hungry, no food in our community is wasted, and that our work can show that there is in fact, Enough for ALL.
